Oakland Food Pantry Guide

COVID-era supplemental food stamp benefits came to an end on March 1. The Agriculture Department estimates families will see a decline of about a third in their benefits.

These local food pantries can help those in need. Scan the QR code to view printable maps in a variety of languages.

Take the City's RCO Survey

The Department of City Planning (DCP) launched the Registered Community Organization (RCO) program in 2018 to facilitate communication between the city, neighborhoods, and developers.

OPDC is one of three RCOs in Oakland, together with Oakland Business Improvement District and Oakcliffe Community Organization.

RCOs host Development Activities Meetings (DAMs) to allow everyone the chance to review proposals and ask questions. Where RCO boundaries overlap, the city hosts the DAMs.

The City is conducting a survey on the RCO program. Your feedback is important! Check out the survey here: bit.ly/rco-survey.
